

The Pacific Urethanes capability proposition is founded on three pillars.

- Advanced technology
- Customised Development
- Application Experience

In this newsletter we feature the third pillar:

Application Experience

Pacific Urethanes has an experienced team of professionals in polyurethane application know-how for production and on-site processing environments. Our machinery specialists advise on process design, machine improvements and selection using our extensive knowledge of Graco & HENNECKE - OMS machinery. Pacific Urethanes is your polyurethane application partner.

Pacific Urethanes offers a comprehensive range of Polyurethane Equipment and Service

Pacific Urethanes is a distributor for Graco Equipment. Graco are worldwide specialists in fluid handling offering the next generation of contractor equipment for spray foam, polyurea and other on-site applications.

The next generation Reactor 2 plural component equipment was specifically designed to assist your spray foam or coating business. The Reactor 2 series build in 2018 are equipped with a cellular module allowing the user to make real time adjustments from a smartphone, saving time by not having to run to the system to make changes or view details. This and other innovative features of the Reactor 2 range confirm Graco as a leader in this field.

HENNECKE - OMS

Pacific Urethanes also distributes the HENNECKE - OMS range of 'in plant' equipment in Australia and New Zealand. HENNECKE - OMS is one of the world's leading manufacturers of polyurethane dispensing machines and manufacturing plants.

For over 50 years HENNECKE - OMS has been offering its customers integrated production solutions for processing polyurethane.

The HENNECKE – OMS product portfolio includes efficient polyurethane metering machines using both high and low pressure technology, as well as the world's largest range of plants for producing sandwich panels.
